

Master Series Class - Cinematography

Last Updated Friday, 10 October 2008

Master Series - Cinematographer Class

Dates: Oct 18th, 2008 - sign up now to secure your seat in this class

The class is only $99.00 per student

Description: This hands-on workshop will allow you to get experience with 35mm film cameras and professional HD cameras. Learn, not only the fundamentals of camera operation, but expand your skills with depth of field control, choosing film stock, how to use a light meter, lighting and exposure, dolly movements, hand-held operation, follow-focus techniques, and much more. You'll learn techniques to turn your bland images into professional shots that will get you work.

This class is sponsored by Panavision, Kodak, ValComm Studios, Continental Film and Digital Labs, and First Unit Production Services.

Dates: Oct 18 - sign up now to secure your seat in this class

Times: 9am - 5pm

Location: ValCom Studios / Chameleon Filmworks - Map

Instructor: - Erik Curtis - Erik Curtis is a local celebrity in the film community. He is a working cinematographer, who has worked on such films as Miami Vice, Transporter 2, Amityville Horror, Into the Blue, and many more

Tuition: $99

Class size is limited

REGISTER NOW